

I say "No" to tolls in CT. They are unsafe and anyone who votes for them will need to reconcile themselves with the fact that they will be partly responsible for deaths of those caused by accidents at tolls. If necessary, consider congestion pricing with no physical tolls. Quality of life is decreasing in CT and we are losing residents to other states already. Why would we want to exacerbate this?

Chris Fitch
Westport

Sent from my iPhone